

Community Cultural Center of Tonasket Presents:

Spring Local History Series

April 11, 2018 at 6 pm

Before and After Photos of the Sinlahekin Wildlife Area Taken Between 1886 and 1952.

Additionally, there will be a 20-minute silent film, with captions, made in 1926 promoting the Bracket H Ranch for Boys which is now part of the Sinlahekin Wildlife Area. The film includes a trip to the Okanogan County Rodeo and Fair with Indians and bronc-busting cowboys. The film also features the “boys” climbing Windy Peak and riding their ponies into the mountains that are now the Loomis Forest.

Program is free. Refreshments available by donation.
