

Three Historical Nights

March 8 — 6-8 pm

Fur Trading in the Okanogan

When, Where, Who, Why,
How, Impact

A lively interactive presentation showing how lives changed, effects of trade, shifting environment and nations were altered.

April 12 — 6-8 pm

The Mystery of Hiram “Okanogan” Smith

Who was this first permanent white settler in what is now Okanogan County? Why did he stay? What was the impact? Why don't we know more about him? Why do we care?

May 10 — 6-8 pm

The Cariboo Trail Movie -vs- Reality

The trail was long and hard for the cattle and the men. We would have seen the dust and heard the noise as it moved our valley.

Mike and Kay Sibley will be presenting the three “Historical Nights” with special guests. They are long-time educators, members of the Borderlands Historical Society, the Okanogan County Historical Society and have provided historical programs for schools and community groups.

These programs are brought to you by the Community Cultural Center of Tonasket
411 Western Ave, Tonasket 509-486-1328
